Non Government Schools Animal Ethics Seminar

Friday 17 October 2014
Welcome & Introductions

• The Committee

• Dr Geoff Dandie – ANZCCART (Australian & New Zealand Council for the Care of Animals in Research & Training)

• Dr Deb Kelly – Department of Environment, Water & Natural Resources

• Dr James Munro – University of Adelaide

• Ms Sarah Truran & Westminster School students – Agriculture Teacher, Westminster School
Outline

• The Code
• Role of the Animal Ethics Focus Person
• The Application Form
• Aquaculture
• Cows Create Careers
• Questions
• Refreshments
The Code
Presenter: Dr Geoff Dandie

Link to the document available on the Australian Government National Health and Medical Research Council

Role of the Animal Ethics Focus Person

Presenter: Dr Deb Kelly

Section 4 of The Code is particularly relevant to Teaching in Schools.
• The key Veterinary Surgeon’s and telephone number is mandatory.

• Relevant background qualification and training is listed and membership of any groups.

• Tenure at School, role and succession planning.
The Application Form – What we need...

Page 2

• Educational Outcomes
• Have you considered DVD, Internet as an alternative to animals
The Application Form – What we need...

Page 3

• The Principal or Director must approve
The Application Form – What we need...

Page 4

- Supporting photographs with each application are MANDATORY and most helpful.
- Accuracy important
- Emergency contact
The Application Form – What we need...

- Category 2 and 3 activities / Category 4 and 5 activities.
- Students CAN undertake these activities under direct supervision of appropriately qualified teacher(s).
The Application Form – What we need...

Page 6

- Category 4 activities MUST NOT be performed by the student.
- Category 5 activities MUST NOT be performed by the student.
- Relevant background qualifications & training is important.
Aquaponics

Presenter: Dr James Munro
Cows Create Careers

Presenter: Ms Sarah Truran and Westminster School students
The Presenters and AEC Committee members are available to answer questions.
Thanks for coming!

The NGSAEC will be managed by the Catholic Education Office for 2015 and 2016.

Statistics for 2014 calendar year will be returned to the AISSA office – advice will be sent to schools shortly.

Applications for next year are to be made for the period 1 May to 30 April and are due by 31 March 2015 and sent to the CEO office.