Recurrent Grants - South Australian Government

Do Schools need to comply?

Yes, if your school is receiving a State Recurrent Grant.

Conditions of compliance:

Your school must be registered by the Education and Early Childhood Services Registration and Standards Board of South Australia.

You must satisfy the Office of Non-Government Schools and Services in South Australia that your school has non-profit making status.

Your school must be eligible for Australian Government Funding.

Your school must sign off on the prescribed Funding Deed with the South Australian Government. If you are part of a system the system authority will have signed the deed on your behalf.

If you have to comply, what do you have to do?

1. Ensure that your school maintains its registered status with the Office of Non-Government Schools and Services.

2. Complete the census return.

3. Complete the State Government Funding Deed accountability requirements by 30 June each year.

What are the consequences if you don’t comply?

You may not receive South Australian Government Funding.
