We strongly urge applicants to consider purchasing trip cancellation insurance.

COVID-19 POSTPONEMENT

If a program is unable to travel on the original date of the program due to a COVID-19 border closure with the Northern Territory, funds paid will be credited towards a future travel date when the program will be able to run. If an enrolled participant chooses to cancel they will be refunded from already deposited payments but there will be some funds that may not be refundable. Non-refundable funds would include flight deposits and other non-refundable services. Any expenses that are refunded from suppliers will be returned to you as soon as possible. The aim is to postpone as a first choice so we can maintain the opportunity for the Indigenous community at a future date when travel will be possible.

A NOTE ABOUT THE ITINERARY

While every effort will be made to carry out the program as planned, the itinerary as described is subject to modification and change by CC. The program cost is based upon current airfares, tariffs, and currency values in effect April 2021 and assumes that a minimum of 15 participants will join the program. While we will do everything possible to maintain the listed price, it is subject to change. If it is necessary to levy a surcharge, notification will be given (approximately 90 days prior to departure). In the event of cancellation due to a surcharge, all monies are fully refundable except for deposit.

INSURANCE

We strongly recommend the purchase of trip cancellation insurance, which is available for coverage of expenses in conjunction with cancellation due to illness or accident. Baggage insurance is also recommended. In the event that you must cancel your participation in a travel program, trip cancellation insurance may be the only source of reimbursement.

HEALTH RECOMMENDATIONS

To enjoy your travels to the fullest you should be in good physical and mental health. A full medical form will be sent to you once a booking has been secured by your deposit payment. Any physical condition requiring special attention, diets, or treatment must be reported in writing when the reservation is made. We reserve the right to decline to accept or retain any person as a tour member should such a person's health, mental condition, physical infirmity, or attitude jeopardize the operation of the tour or the enjoyment of other participants.
